Jacqueline Schenkel is president of Schenkel & Associates, LLC. She has over twenty five years of hands-on international marketing and sales experience in aerospace services, satellite manufacturing, multimedia services companies and space-based business solutions ventures. She is a pragmatic decision maker with a European heritage and U.S. business training who has created and successfully executed strategic and tactical marketing and business development campaigns for international companies and clients in the United States and in Europe.

As an independent business owner, Ms. Schenkel has widened her commercial experience to space-based applications such as navigation and geospatial technologies and other international business representation.

In addition to senior positions at Hughes Network Systems, Loral Space & Communications subsidiaries—Space Systems/Loral and CyberStar, and Arianespace, she benefited from an early and diverse international experience in the United States at the Algerian Embassy, the World Bank-West Africa division, INTELSAT and France Telecom.

Ms. Schenkel is a graduate of the College of Monaco and has a Bachelor of Arts from the Elliott School of International Affairs and a Master of Business Administration in Finance, both from The George Washington University in Washington, DC.
